Dear Sir,

Thank you for the booklet and notes for the lecture series Politics and Government...Strange Bedfellows presented during 2017. I thought the notes given concluded your information. What a surprise. This booklet is well prepared, represents a lot of work and planning, much information, and very interesting. I am delighted.

Tonight, on Iowa Public Television, is the program: Frontline: The Secret History of ISIS. "Get the inside story of the creation of ISIS and learn how the U. S. missed the many warning signs." I look forward to watching it.

IPTV is the one thing I really miss during my winter six months in Florida. I have access to four channels some starting at 5 a.m. and continuing until midnight or shortly after. Great programming.

Thank you,

Sylvia S. Chatterton
